The pro se plaintiffs originally brought this case in the York County Court of Common Pleas. The defendant removed the action to this court on January 14, 2011, on the basis of diversity and federal question jurisdiction.

The Magistrate Judge assigned to this action¹ has prepared a Report and Recommendation wherein he suggests that the defendant's motion to dismiss be granted in light of the plaintiffs' response to the motion. Plaintiffs' response, while not entirely clear, appears to apologize to the court, while agreeing with the defendant that the case should be dismissed. The Report sets forth in detail the relevant facts and standards of law on this matter, and the court incorporates such without a recitation and without a hearing.

The plaintiffs were advised of their right to file objections to the Report and

Recommendation which was filed on March 4, 2011. Plaintiffs did not file objections to the Report. In the absence of specific objections to the Report of the Magistrate Judge, this court is not required to give any explanation for adopting the recommendation. See Camby v. Davis, 718 F.2d 198, 199 (4th Cir. 1983).

After a careful review of the record, the applicable law, the Report and Recommendation, the court finds the Magistrate Judge's recommendation to be proper and incorporates the Report herein by reference. In light of the plaintiffs' apparent consent to dismissal, the defendant's motion to dismiss is granted and this matter is ended.

IT IS SO ORDERED.
